

DARLOT - Later known as - WOODARRA.

DAVYHURST - Earlier known as - DAVYSTON - and - MACE'S FIND.

LOCATION = Latitude 30° 03' south by Longitude 120° 39' east. South west of the current town of Menzies.¹

INDUSTRY = Gold mining.

HISTORY = The Waihi mine was discovered by "Watty" DAVYS in November 1899. Other nearby mines were the Golden Pole, the Great Ophir and the Callion.² When it was proposed to declare a townsite there in 1900 the site was referred to as Davyston, better known as Mace's Find. Warden OWEN of Menzies then advised the Department the place was known as "Davyhurst", and this was the name used when the townsite was gazetted in 1901.³ It was named after "Watty" DAVYS.⁴

By September 1915 the adult population was down to thirty males and eighteen females.⁵

POLICE & COURTS = The Police station was operating by March 1902.⁶ A Police building appears to have been erected on Siberia Street⁷ in 1906.⁸ The station was closed in October 1915.⁹

DAVYSTON - Earlier name for - DAVYHURST.

DAY DAWN - Originally named - BUNDAWADRA.

LOCATION = Latitude 27° 28 south by Longitude 117° 52 east. In the Murchison Goldfields, 6.6 kilometres from the present town of Cue.¹³

INDUSTRY - Gold mining.

HISTORY = Gold was discovered here by Ted HEFFERMAN in 1892, and he named his discovery "Day Dawn", after the time of day that he pegged his claim. Day Dawn was originally gazetted as Bundawadra in 1894, but was changed to Day Dawn within three months. The area developed rapidly from 1898 when the famous Great Fingall mine was established.

Flooding and other problems closed the Great Fingall mine around the time of the Second World War, and the town of DAY DAWN soon faded away.¹⁴

UTILITIES = Hugh OLDHAM is listed as the engineer at the Water Supply in the 1898 postal directory.¹⁵

POLICE & COURTS = The Police Station opened in November 1894.¹⁶ The police quarters in Hefferman Street were completed in August 1896,¹⁷ and the lockup in November 1896.¹⁸ The station remained manned until it was closed in August 1919. The buildings were officially and unofficially used as a private residence until sold at tender in 1931.¹⁹

The courthouse building was erected in 1904 and shifted to Yalgoo in 1921.²⁰

DESMOND

LOCATION = In the Ravensthorpe area. Latitude 33° 37.5 south by Longitude 120° 08.7' east.²³⁰

EDUCATION = Children were taught in a private three bedroom house in about 1907 in what may have been a private arrangement.

Unfortunately there is some confusion over the dates involved with the Government school. Although start up dates from different sources supply the years of 1907, 1908 and 1909 the only final year of operations recorded appears to be 1915. The schools name is also recorded as either the Desmond School or the Elverdton School. The name of the mine was and is the Elverdton Copper Mine, but the surveyed town site is Desmond and the school was on the town site.²³¹

SCHOOL TEACHERS.

HATFIELD, Len or Lou = This nineteen year old was the first government school teacher.

SPEARS, [Mr] = He was appointed in about September 1910.²³²

DONNELLY RIVER TIMBER MILL - YORNUP AREA

LOCATION = Latitude 34° 6.1' south by Longitude 115° 58.6' east.²³⁶

INDUSTRY = Timber.

HISTORY = Bunnings began construction of this mill and also presumably the nineteen kilometres of company railway line back to Yornup in April 1948. Going into production in January 1949. Logs were originally railed in from lines east of the mill, but this changed to road transport in the early 1950's. The rail line to Yornup remained in use until the last steam locomotive was retired in March 1970. The mill itself closed in 1978 and found use as a holiday camp.²³⁷

DORE ISLAND

LOCATION =

HEALTH = There was a Hospital there by about 1909.²³⁸

DOYLES WELL - Originally called - CUTMORE'S WELL.²³⁹

LOCATION = Between Leonora and Agnew at the confluence of the Turkey and Wilson Creeks.²⁴⁰

INDUSTRY = Wayside in and coaching stop.

TRANSPORT SERVICES = In 1903 there was a coach service from Leonora three days a week.²⁴¹ There were stockmen working for the stagecoach lines stationed there until at least about 1912.²⁴²

HISTORY = The first reports of gold in the area were made in January 1893 by E. BOWDEN and L. SULLIVAN,²⁴³ but the well was probably dug as a water supply for William CUTMORE, Jack DOYLE and John LEYLAND who were in the district prospecting for gold in what was known as the Diorite area in late 1894. By 1895 the name Doyles well seems to have won out and in December 1896 the 5,000 acre reserve 3741 for travellers and stock was created around the well to serve the traffic to the gold fields to the north. In December 1912 Jack DOYLE perished from thirst within thirteen kilometres of Doyles Well.²⁴⁴

HOTELS & ACCOMMODATION = A place for rest and recreation was set up, but the date of establishment is not certain. Certainly in July 1896 Richard LEVINGE applied for a Wayside Inn license, but this may not have been granted. The earliest known successful licence was for 1898 in the name of John HOLEHAN trading as the Doyles Well hotel.²⁴⁵ The 1920 postal directory lists Fred STAUNTON there.²⁴⁶

The business continued trading under several managers until about 1944/45 when the licence was suspended. The licence was re-issued in 1947 and the business continued to trade until it was surrendered in 1950. At one time DOYLES WELL was apparently the source of supply for several illicit inns in the settlements to its north. The configuration of the original buildings is not certain, but by about the early 1900's there was thought to have been a bar, six bedrooms, a sitting room, a dining room and a kitchen.²⁴⁷ The building was in a parlous state by about 1937 and the manager Angelo POLETTI had it pulled it down and erected a mud brick structure with a bar, four bedrooms a dining room, plus the managers rooms. Under his stewardship which lasted until about 1943 there was a swimming pool, electric lighting plant, skating rink, four tennis courts, a bowling alley and a large bough shed added. There was also a big sports oval alongside and two large windmills for the water supply.²⁴⁸
