OLIVER as the operator.³⁵ Unfortunately this entry presents something of a problem because similar entries appear up to at least 1920. By 1896 GULLEWA was an important mining centre, and the Gullewa Progress Committee requested the government to declare a townsite.⁹⁶ When the town was developed it was positioned away from the mines.⁹⁷ A survey was made in 1897 of the already well set out town. The survey of the town provided one hundred and seventy one domestic Lots with seventeen streets.⁹⁸ The townsite was gazetted in 1898 and derives its name from the nearby Gullewa Spring, first recorded by John Forrest in 1873. The name is Aboriginal, of unknown meaning.⁹⁹
